The dismembered bodies of Madalyn Murray O'Hair, Jon Murray and Robin Murray were found in January of 2000 near Camp Wood, Texas. One of the killers, David Waters, led the authorities to the site in return for a guarantee he would serve his time in a Federal rather than in a Texas state prison. He died in prison of liver disease in 2003. Madalyn Murray O'Hair (born Mays; April 13, 1919 &– September 29, 1995) was an American activist, communist, and Holocaust denier supporting atheism and separation of church and state. In 1963 she founded American Atheists and served as its president until 1986, after which her son Jon Garth Murray succeeded her. She created the first issues of American Atheist Magazine. Haven't read it yet; you might want to consider including a link, or at least the title, because I have no idea what the name of the book is. I remember when she was active in politics when I was a kid (I grew up in Texas, where she was active); I was too young to know what she was talking about, really. Beyond that, I don't know if it's believable or not. 1. 0. Still have questions? Get your answers by asking now. Madalyn Murray O'Hair proudly called herself "the most hated woman in America," because of her constant fight to keep religion out of public life. For her, separation of God and government was a sword she waved day in and day out for forty years. She rabidly assailed those who believed in God, saying they were nothing more than retarded juveniles, brainwashed robots.
