This manual describes the components of sound financial management, revenue generation, budget formulation and execution, financial information and control for use in a course on urban financial management, particularly in relation to the rapidly growing cities and towns of Africa.