Spiro Kostof (1936-1991) was Professor of Architectural History at the University of California at Berkeley, President of the Society for Architectural Historians, and author of the pioneering work, A History of Architecture, Settings and Rituals. He hosted the 5-part television series "America by Design." WORLD ARCHITECTURE All Illustrated History 1026 black and white illustrations and 32 pages of color plates. The history of architecture is the history of mankind. Each culture produces new versions of the house of God, the house of man, and the house of the dead. In their outward form, these structures express and project the deepest feelings and highest aspirations of mankind. Although architecture by itself lacks the subject matter of painting or sculpture, it is often able to tell us far more about how people worshipped, lived, loved, and died, what they glorified, and what they feared.
