Suppose your whole life is important to Christ. He does. These seven studies will help you explore and live out the marvellous truth that the gospel is an invitation into whole-life discipleship, into a life following and imitating Jesus. This title is brought to you by Keswick Ministries and follows the theme of the 2015 Keswick Convention. Find out more at https://www.keswickministries.org.

Suppose your whole life is important to Christ? He does. These seven studies will help you explore and live out the marvellous truth that the gospel is an invitation into whole-life discipleship, into a life following and imitating Jesus. This title is brought to you by Keswick Ministries and follows the theme of the 2015 Keswick Convention. Find out more at https://www.keswickministries.org.

Daniel 12.1. Daniel is the great prophetic book of the Old Testament. The Lord Jesus Christ will act in His role as the judge of unsaved humanity. Two sets of books are present at the judgment: the Book of Life and the Book(s) of Works. John recorded:

George has given his whole life to serve Christ, and he still travels the world encouraging people to give everything for the cause of the gospel. He tells us why he has given his life to this cause:

In his famous book on Discipleship, the German pastor Dietrich Bonhoeffer wrote that, when Christ calls someone, he bids them come and die. In his second letter to the Corinthians, Paul explains why the true disciple gladly gives their whole life to Christ. Our preacher, Jonathan Lamb, will reflect on what Paul is telling us but first let’s listen to his words from 2 Corinthians 5.

Reading: Hannah (2 Corinthians 5:14-17).