Henry Ford (July 30, 1863 – April 7, 1947) was an American industrialist and business magnate, founder of the Ford Motor Company, and chief developer of the assembly line technique of mass production. By creating the first automobile that middle-class Americans could afford, he converted the automobile from an expensive curiosity into an accessible conveyance that profoundly impacted the landscape of the 20th century. Author of over 24 books, Michael W. Ford is a leading Luciferian visionary and Left-Hand Path Adept and Magician. Ford's publications are both tomes of magical instruction and academic research to provide the history, lore and modern practices within Luciferianism. These published grimoires unveil the Luciferian Tradition, founded upon a rational philosophy contained in the "11 Luciferian Points of Power". Each book is envisioned by Michael as possessing a patron spirit or energy which if approached seriously by the reader, can inspire the gateway of the imagination and authentic W.E. Ford book.
